COURSE OF

SURGICAL ANATOMY “Endoscopic ear surgery”

Turin July 8th 2016

Course Directors Prof.ri Livio Presutti / Daniele Marchioni
Coordinator / Dott. Maurizio Catalani

All our courses are available on www.aiaditalia.it

PROGRAM

This course on endoscopic ear surgery, with a very practical approach, will allow you to perform on fresh-frozen specimens an anatomic dissection study directed to know the anatomical structures of a complex district as middle and internal ear. The intensive course will be organized in a full day of anatomical endoscopic dissection with a step-by-step video-guide, under the supervision of very qualified tutors and teachers.

We hope that the interest for this new perspective in ear surgery will inspire you to participate and we are looking forward to meet you in Turin.
